Sing DXS-Point-of-Care while you Work Remotely	673
DXS is committed to supporting you as best we can during this difficult period. There are many GPs and practice staff needing remote access to DXS Point-of-Care due to self-isolation and home working. Facilitating a safe and seamless transition to home working for our users is our main priority and is completely achievable through a simple installation process we have put in place.
There are a number of ways in which remote working with DXS Point-of-Care within your clinical system can be achieved so please get in touch, using the below link

Patient
Did you know there is a Travel Risks section under the Patient information section of this product? Included is information on diseases like Yellow Fever .
Professional
The latest NICE guidelines are available under the Professional section of the product, including guidelines on OCD and Respiratory Tract Infection
Medicines
The Medicines information is grouped in a BMF-like structure for easy reference. Not only are products grouped into their Therapy Class (like 13.6.1 Topical Preparations for acne) but also into their respective active ingredients (like benzovi peroxide).
Services
The Services section contains information aimed at patients (e.g. Atcheimer's Society) as well as information more relevant to Medical Professionals.
